Index to Geographical and Tribal Names

Unlike the index to personal names, this index is not intended to include all the geographical and tribal names from the manuscripts. It contains only names mentioned in the calendar summaries, which in general are the most unusual names or are names of particular interest. Finally, this index excludes some of the most common names, such as “Kaskaskia,” because these entries would contain so great a number of references that they would be of little use. The following is a list of these excluded names: Fort de Chartres, Grande Prairie, Kaskaskia, Metchigamia, Mississippi, Prairie Chassin, Prairie du Rocher, and St. Philippe.
